NEWS ITEMS OF INTEREST

According to Chinese notions of rank, masters must not occupy sleeping rooms below their servants. Consequently the family of the Chinese professor at Cambridge, Mass., sleep in the attic, and the servants down stairs.

John P. Smith was sent to the Indiana state prison for whipping his wife, who at once set about getting him pardoned. While making a long journey afoot, in cold weather, to get signatures to the petition, her baby froze to death in her arms.

The zealous Adventist of Mukwa, Wis., walk ten miles to New London every Sunday to attend services of their own denomination. On a recent trip the leader was soundly whipped by a brother to whose wife he had been suspiciously polite.

An instance of five children at a birth has just been published by Dr. Wm. Fisher, of New Glasgow, Nova Scotia. Four died immediately and the fifth lived only a few days. Three were girls and two boys. They weighed fourteen pounds in the aggregate, and ranged from thirteen to sixteen inches in length.

Mrs. Daryl made her appearance at Lebanon, Va., with a bloody clasp over her shoulder, and her face and arms terribly scratched. "I guess I won't be troubled by that Harmon woman any more," she said. She had brutally murdered a woman with whom, as she believed, her husband had fallen in love.

A house built in 1639 still stands in Dedham, Mass., and is the oldest in New England. It is beautifully situated under heavily branching elms, with a now-covered roof. Much of the original furniture, 240 years of age, still remains, and has been in the possession of one family, named Fairbanks, during all of that time.

An actor at the National Theatre, Philadelphia, went on the stage without a pistol in a scene requiring him to shoot the villain of the play. W. H. Jones, the stage manager, tried to slide the required weapon to the negligent performer, and accidentally discharged it. Though there was no ball in the weapon, Jones' hand was wounded and he died of lockjaw.

Though a Worcester bride was only fifteen, her husband deemed her the safest custodian of the purse during their honeymoon tour; but they had only gone as far as Concord when it was discovered that the treasure had been lost through a hole in her pocket. They were compelled to walk back home, begging food and lodging by the way.

The St. Gothard Tunnel.

The length of the actual St. Gothard tunnel is nine miles and three hundred and seventy-seven yards, while that of Mount Cenis is rather more than a mile and a half less. The rate at which the rock was bored between Modane and Bardonecchia amazed mechanics a dozen years since. But the progress made under St. Gothard has been more than double. The contractor agreed that the work should be finished in eight years. The actual time has been seven months less than the stipulated term.

"Birds of a feather flock together." This is just exactly what they should do; the reason being Geogel's Jewelry Store on Virginia Street, Reno.

I. Fredrick defies anybody to make jewelry to order cheaper than he does.

 UNWRITTEN LAWS.

Great Britain has no written constitution. The constitution of that country is contained in hoary precedents and in acts of Parliament. Yet Englishmen have the greatest respect and reverence for their unwritten, organic law, and with them whatever is shown to be at variance with its spirit is at once condemned. They are bound, in affairs of government, to act according to precedent.

If this nation lasts long enough, there will at length grow up certain usages and practices, which though not engrained upon the written constitution, will have with the people all the force of law.

Were, like England's, the constitution of this country unwritten, there can be no doubt that various usages which have obtained in our government for over a hundred years would by this time have become as inviolate as the lex scripta. Among these usages is that which has prevented any man being President more than two terms. The defeat of Grant at the Chicago Convention, or at the polls in November, would without legislation, establish the principle that no man can be President of the United States more than twice.

A LIFE PRESIDENT.

Those who desire to have General Grant for President a third time should consider whether they want him President for life or not. It is not impossible that a third term and a term for life may mean the same thing. For the arguments that are now used in support of Grant will be all the stronger for the fourth term. A third term would add to his experience, and therefore better qualify him for a fourth term. And after a fourth term he would still better be fitted for a fifth. And the more terms Grant has the more he will want. Having once broken down the barrier which the traditions of a century have erected against a third term his way will be easier to a fourth.

The Grant men would do well to agitate for a constitutional amendment in favor of a life-term. The expense of Presidential elections every four years is considerable. By putting Grant in for life, the country could be saved all this outlay and worry.

10,000 CANDIDATES.

A great deal of newspaper space is being wasted in the discussion of who are candidates for the Presidency. What any man may say to the question: "Are you a candidate?" goes for nothing. All men are candidates for what they may secretly desire, and there are at least 100,000 citizens, any one of whom would accept the Presidency if it was secured to him. Even the ambitious Cesar did thrice refuse the kingly crown which Marc Antony tendered him. What does it matter, then, whether Grant or Edmunds, or Washburne (with an e) denies that he is a candidate? One thing is certain: once a candidate, always a candidate. And it looks as though it may hereafter be said with the same truth: Once a President always a candidate.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The California for April has come to hand. The following is the table of contents: "Sand," chapter IV, J. W. Gailly; "The Story of Australia and New Zealand," R. E. Desmond; "The Hermit of Treasure Peaks," Sam Davis; "Pallas," Charles W. Phelps; "Shepherds and Sheep-herding," II, Robert Duncan Milne; "At Agua Tibia," Agnes M. Manning; "Americanism in Literature," Edgar Fawcett; "Captain Molly," E. M. Ludlum; "The Ethics of Suicide," Albert Willard; "Our Ophidian Friend," John Vance Cheney; "Notable Autographs," Pourquois; "Ruby," J. H. S. Bugala; "Arizona," James Wyatt Oates; "A Glimpse of the Unusual," W. C. Marrow; "Outcroppings," "Sand" is a story of absorbing interest. The last chapter contains a fine description of the characteristics of Nevada scenery. "The Hermit of Treasure Peaks" exhibits a power and originality worthy the name of genius. There are many excellent things in this number, but we have not space to speak of them in detail.

A correspondent of the N. Y. Sun suggests that the comet now attracting the attention of astronomers may not be the brilliant one of 1843, as supposed, but the star seen in the east by the wise man at the time of the birth of Christ. Its first recorded appearance was nearly forty-four years before Christ. Its period, therefore, would be about 43 1/2 years. It is probably the same as the comet of 531, 1006, 1402 and 1454. If this is not the comet now appearing, there is but one other with which the star can be identified—the comet of 52 A. C. If the latter, its appearance is recorded at the birth of Christ, 531, 885, 1106, 1402, 1454.

Change is not always improvement, as was illustrated by the loss of the Grosser Kurfurst, the great German iron-clad. General Stosch, the Admiral-in-chief of the German navy, under the belief that the words "larboard" and "starboard" had been hitherto wrongly used, issued an order that "larboard" should hereafter mean what "starboard" had meant before, and vice versa. To the confusion resulting from this remarkable order, the loss of the great German war vessel is attributed.

The Sacramento Bee thinks the fish cannery at Wadsworth will drain the river and lake of trout. The Bee does not get hold of the question. At certain seasons of the year there is an enormous waste of fish, and Mr. Griswold proposes to can the surplus to sell when the fish are scarce. Of course it might lead to depredations such as the salmon canneries practice on the Sacramento. But we will try to watch for that as closely as the Bee does them.

People with weak lungs, or pulmonary diseases are warned away from Leadville. But still the weak as well as the robust rush in there, as they will rush anywhere, for money. The yield of silver and lead from the camp last year was $10,504,106, an average of $95 to the ton of ore extracted. Leadville has now 30,000 inhabitants, and is constantly growing.

The country is being flooded with documents from Blaine's headquarters at Washington. It is amusing to see the small papers gobble up the marked portions and run them as original editorials. Two or three of Blaine's Nevada papers had the same lines on Saturday.

Jasper Babcock is not likely to be elected to any office in Nevada again very soon. The verdict of the jury in the case of McFadden against him, reported in another column, leaves a dark spot on the record of the present incumbent of the office of Secretary of State.

If the Democrats really want an honest man for President, why don't they unite on Bayard in preference to such a sly old rascal as Tilden? It was Tilden whom a zealous member of a late New York Democratic State Convention denounced as "the monumental fraud of the age."

Horatio Seymour would make a good President, if that can be said of any Democrat, but he is a trifle old—76 this spring. That furnishes at least one argument in his favor—he would not be likely to want a third term.

Too much notoriety is what's ailing Grant and Blaine now. Like that shady character in one of Wilkie Collins' novels, they can both write "T. W. K." (too well known) in many places on the map.

Senator Blaine owns a large and valuable coal mine in Pennsylvania. If he can't fire the national heart he can toast the nation's shins, anyhow.

Conkling is apparently working hard for Grant, but some believe he is nursing a little dark Roscoe boom.

There is a big let down in the Blaine boom. The reaction has set in.

Shooting Affray in Virginia.

A shooting affray occurred last Friday evening in Virginia between Henry Bowden, superintendent of the Julia, and W. J. Wildbahn, telegraph operator at the V. & T. railroad depot. The parties met on O street and hard words passed, when Wildbahn struck Bowden over the head with a cane. Then both drew pistols and three shots were fired, only one taking effect, which went through Wildbahn's thigh. An old difficulty was the cause.

Pennsylvania for Blaine.

From the Press.
 Pennsylvania is for Blaine, although her delegates to the Chicago Convention have been instructed to vote for Grant. There never was a more extraordinary perversion of popular sentiment that was effected by the Republican State Convention when it pledged the votes of Pennsylvania to a candidate the people do not want.

"Are we to accept the Mosaic account of the temptation and fall of Adam as a literal narration of facts?" was the question presented in the affirmative by Rev. J. T. Willis at the Congressional Club at its last meeting in San Francisco.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

Hay $30 a ton in Carson.
 About 50 men are now working in Como.

Some parties are now working placer claims near Como.

A Nevada ball report says: "Miss was full of eclat—the eclat lady present."

The farmers in Mason valley are all busy putting in grain. A large area will be sown this season.

Johr Larenson, conductor of the V. & T. train, has moved to Reno. He will occupy O. H. Smith's house.

The Welter mill at Como has been leased to Jos. Walter for one year. It has started up on the North Rapidan ore.

There are 125 men at work for $1 per day in Golden Gate Park, in San Francisco, and 835 applicants registered.

Tuscarora has some very mean thieves. They broke into a dead man's room and stole all the clothes he had left behind him.

Col. C. C. Thomas, the newly appointed superintendent of the Sutro Tunnel, took charge on Wednesday and is now directing operations.

The Petaluma Courier says: The first wild goose of the season bound north passed here Tuesday. He was on a bicycle and came from the direction of San Rafael.

A ten-year-old boy in Mariposa lately killed a couple of large gray eagles, which attacked him while he was hunting for a calf in the hills. They weighed thirty-five pounds each.

It is now stated that D. O. Mills will employ white men to build the Bodie railroad. This dastardly attempt to colonize Nevada should meet with a fitting rebuke from the Democratic organs, the Eureka Leader thinks.

Jos. Seaman of Mason valley was brought into Dayton last Thursday on a charge of beating his wife. The complainant alleged that he used a club while at the amusement. Seaman plead guilty, and paid the fine and costs, amounting to $76.

Last week in the Tilden district, near Roberts' Ferry, on the Tuolumne river, a boy named Fine, aged fifteen years, stabbed another boy about his own age, named Davis. The parents have taken sides, and considerable trouble is feared.

The Sentinel says that an enterprising Eureka, hearing that hundreds of cattle had died in the valleys north of that place during the winter, started out to save the hides, and is said to be making two hundred dollars a day at the business.

A curious and fatal accident occurred at White Salmon, Washington Territory, on the 25th. Joseph Marks was engaged in cutting off a sapling which had been bent down by the snow, when the stump flew up, struck him on the head and killed him.

B. K. Davis, District Attorney of White Pine county, died at Hamilton last Thursday of dropsy. He was a pioneer on the Pacific coast, an old resident of Nevada, and was serving his second term as District Attorney of White Pine county at the time of his death.

A San Diego, Cal., man caught a fine specimen of the California vulture, and gave it to the proprietor of a small menagerie to keep for him. In the menagerie was a pet coon, and the vulture was placed in a tree above the box in which the coon was kept. In the morning fur and feathers marked the spot. The vulture lay on his back, claws up, stiff in death, and the coon lay on his side, still alive, but in a dilapidated condition.

JUJUTINGS.

A wallet was lost this morning. See 50-cent ad.

Louis Graft of Chris Haller's butcher shop has pneumonia.

A special train with seventeen cars of tea and six of silk went east this morning.

The hotel at Steamboat was reopened for the season on Saturday evening last.

Only two days more for duck shooting. The close season for game begins on Thursday, April 1.

Lent is over now and it is expected that there will be a great turn out at Mrs. Alt's dance to-night.

The kalsominers are at work on the lower floor of the court house. It is thought that they will lose on their contract.

The water was turned off from the pipes of the Reno Water company to-day. A bad day to be without water had a fire broken out.

The most curious bird ever seen in Reno is now on exhibition at Chase & Thyes' saloon. It is called by some a Pyramid Lake canary, by others a "sililulu."

Fidelity Lodge, L. O. G. T., will hold a meeting open to the public to-morrow (Tuesday) evening, at their hall over the Congregational Church. The exercises will consist of music, recitations, etc. No charge for admittance.

Needham doesn't tell anyone for whom the big blue chair is intended. The popular fancy painter Mr. Hammond within its ample arms, but J. H. Kinked has an idea that it should be presented to L. S. Burchard, of Wadsworth.

The Easter services at Trinity and the Methodist church yesterday were very pleasing. Carols, hymns and anthems, appropriate to the day, were finely sung. Easter eggs beautifully colored, and fresh flowers, were distributed among the children.

A Good Company.

The following explains itself:
SAN FRANCISCO, March 23, 1880.
Messrs Hutchinson & Mann, Insurance Agents, San Francisco, Cal.—
Dear Sirs: By the fire of March 9th, the Companies of which you are General Agents, lost on the Grand Central Hotel and its contents, in Oakland, the large sum of twenty-one thousand eight hundred and fifty dollars.

We desire to thank you in behalf of the estate for your prompt and satisfactory adjustment and payment of the same without any deductions, and to be considered your friends, very truly
and CHAS. LUX,
Executors of the estate of Michael Reese.

W. N. Knox is agent for Reno for Hutchinson & Mann's companies.

The Jones & Kinked.

The drift being run from the shaft to cut directly into the ore body will connect with the stope to-morrow. Supt. Jones reports that in stopping out toward the shaft he found a larger body of ore than he had expected. Instead of pinching out rapidly, as it appeared to be doing where it was first cut, it swelled out considerably. The work of hoisting has not been begun but will be in a day or two.

Fire at Battle Mountain.

At half past two o'clock on Saturday afternoon a fire took place at Battle Mountain, burning the hotel, telegraph office and freight depot. The loss is about $80,000. The cause of the fire is unknown. F. W. Wetherill of this place had a trunk full of clothing, papers, etc., in the hotel, and thinks it must have been destroyed.

The Cattle Market.

Lee shipped seven carloads of cattle to Clayburg this morning. They were sold by Crutcher.

Chisholm has sold 104 head to Brooks. They will be delivered next Thursday.

AWAY UP NORTH.

A County Without a Village or an Officer in It.

Roop county rivals Storey in the variety and extent of its agricultural resources though not in those of its mines. The line between Washoe and Roop is a little indefinite, but it is agreed by all that Cox's station, on the Pyramid road, is south, and Hepperly's ranch north of it. In this vast tract, which extends to the Oregon line, there are about a dozen ranches where hay and grain are raised, and as many more where horses and cattle live off wild hay and bunch grass. G. W. Hepperly, lately deceased, left a fine ranch thirty-four miles north of Reno. A hundred acres are cultivated. Two miles beyond is Frank Dickenson's ranch. He plows 200 acres and has a certain yield. Both ranches raise fine fruit. Giles and Bickford have part of his place leased this year. Next is the "Milk Ranch," recently sold by G. L. Winters to Graham Bros., who seed 100 acres. A. J. Newton has 50 acres 41 miles from Reno.

IN DRY VALLEY.

forty miles from Reno in a little different direction, are two good ranches owned by C. Jesus and Antoni Miller each of fifty acres plowed land and big ranges under fence. Fifty-two miles out W. J. Anderson cultivates 250 acres at Fish Springs. He raises some fruit. Round Hole is 70 miles from Reno. It is owned by A. H. Disball and is rented by Lew Harris, who is going to put in a crop and use some of the water now running to waste from a fine spring. Sheephead is 82 miles from Reno, and seven from the California line. The place is owned by Theo. Winters and worked by Bonham and Scullie, who farm 150 acres besides having cattle on all the hills around. Sheephead is a postoffice. Mrs. Bonham is postmistress and dispenses the mail for stockmen and ranchers at Deep Hole, Buffalo Salt Works, Smoke Creek, and places in Humboldt county. About fifty persons get their mail there. Smoke Creek lies west of the road three miles and 90 from Reno. G. D. Winters runs a big sheep and cattle ranch there for Theo. Winters and cuts 600 tons of wild hay.

THE BUFFALO SALT WORKS

employ five men and are growing in importance. B. F. Murphy, the proprietor, is pushing his trade over a large extent of country. They lie 90 miles north of here. Fourteen miles further on are the Buffalo Meadows, a post office, stock range, etc. E. S. Hamlin & Co. cut 200 tons of wild hay. Chalk Hill is a stage station on the toll road. There is no farming land, only a spring with water enough for stage stock. From Reno it is 118 miles. Jackson Clarke is the proprietor. Dennis and James Mulquieney cut some hay and raise vegetables at their station, 132 miles from Reno. They also have some stock. Lew Clark raises vegetables, cuts 250 tons of hay and pastures stock at Lost Creek, 134 miles from Reno. W. B. Toddhunter has a stock ranch in Long valley near the California line. In the northeast corner of the county, near the Humboldt line, lies Deep Hole springs, owned by David Miller a big stock owner. He cuts 350 tons of wild hay. Between there and Pyramid Lake, L. T. Fox of Gold Hill has a horse ranch where he cuts some hay.

ON PYRAMID LAKE,

near the north end, Dr. Woods has a nice ranch of 80 acres, 48 miles from Reno. He has 40 fruit trees and a lot of grape vines. His apples do well but his peaches are especially fine. He raises excellent potatoes which he sells to go north at two cents a pound on the ranch. A couple of miles south, L. M. Smith has a house on the lake shore. He raises potatoes and cabbage in a canyon in the hills. Whitehead Brothers have 50 acres under cultivation two miles back from the lake. J. C. Watson will put in some land this year. J. N. Mullen is building a stage station right on the line, 32 miles from Reno. The county is unorganized. There are no mines and not even a village in all its borders. J. F. Bonham is Justice of the Peace, and he is the only qualified officer in the county. There are many thousands of acres of fine land and the people are looking anxiously for the arduous well experiment to be tried. All the land for which there is water is now in use, and the country must remain a desert with only an occasional oasis unless such wells are obtained.

School Matters.

The board of School Trustees will meet this evening to decide upon what work is necessary upon the grounds around the new school house, and to select someone to take the school census. There are several applicants, Perry, Budden, Thurston and others. Perry seems to be the choice of the Board. He is the man who was agent for D. M. Osborne & Co. The work will take about a month and the pay is $100.

Tricks of the Tornado.

The wind of Saturday and Sunday did considerable damage in the valley. The telegraph wires were blown down near Lamb's, on the Virginia road. A team from Mooney's stable was coming this way about 10 o'clock Saturday night and ran into a pole, upsetting the buggy, tearing off the top and seat, and throwing out the occupants. B. G. Clow's and Mrs. Peleg Brown's barns were also blown down.

A Violent Storm.

A storm which is said to have exceeded in violence any that have occurred this winter was raging on the mountains yesterday. The Reno and San Francisco passenger train was detained a long time beyond Blue Canyon, where the wind had blown down a snow shed. While the train lay waiting for the track to be cleared, two feet of snow fell around it. It arrived here at 6 o'clock last night. In Reno the wind blew a gale all day. The sky was blue overhead and the sun shining, but over the mountains to the west the storm clouds had gathered in dark masses, from which snow was constantly falling. Light flakes of snow were borne by the gale as far as the town but the wind which brought them was not cold. This morning was cold and windy and the day has been disagreeable. Spring is not here yet, by any means.

The McFadden-Babcock Case.

The jury in the case of McFadden vs. Babcock brought in a verdict for the plaintiff last Friday night in Carson. The suit was to recover $375 alleged to have been deducted from McFadden's pay as Deputy Secretary of State. McFadden's lawful salary was $250, and it was alleged in the complaint that Babcock obliged him to "go halves." Babcock denied the whole story, and asserted that there was no truth in it, but the jury thought differently and found for the full amount of the plaintiff's claim, $375. McFadden's legal expenses, in addition to the jury fees of $144, must have made a large hole in his $375, but he has cause to be satisfied with the result of the suit. The Tribune says that the jury in the case consisted of nine Republicans and three Democrats. On being polled they stood ten for plaintiff and two for defendant. The latter were Democrats.

Why the Trout are Scarce.

Sheriff Walker recently addressed a note to Indian Agent Spencer at Pyramid Lake, calling his attention to the complaints that had been made in regard to dams at the mouth of the Truckee. He-to-day received a reply giving the assurance that the Agent would see to the removal of any obstructions in the river within the limits of the Reservation. The Sheriff thinks that the reason why the run of fish is so small is not because of obstructions, but the low stage of water in the river, which is at this season usually a foot or two higher. However, if any obstructions exist they will soon be removed, for Commissioner Parker is about to send a man down to inspect the river. The inspector will be accompanied by a guide whom Sheriff Walker will furnish. Any dams they may find barring the passage of the fish will be opened out.

The Reform Club Entertainment.

The attendance at the Reform Club entertainment last Saturday evening was much smaller than usual, but considering the storm that prevailed, a larger audience assembled than could have been expected under the circumstances. The address by Sheriff Walker on "The Footprints of Time" was one of the best that have been delivered before the club. It was a rapid yet comprehensive review of many of the great names of history, beginning with some of the heroes of Greece and Rome and ending with President Lincoln. Certain eloquent passages in the essay drew out rounds of applause from the audience. The speaker's delivery was a model of distinct and clear enunciation. The dance which concluded the entertainment was poorly attended.

"Pinafore" in Church.

A passenger on the train from Carson this morning told a very improbable story of an incident that occurred in a Carson church yesterday. In a certain anthem sung by the choir, a solo singer had occasion to repeat three times the words "Let me never," and finally wound up with "Let me hardly ever be confounded." The narrator of this veracious yarn says that this unfortunate mistake created great consternation in the congregation, and entirely demoralized the choir.

The following are the names of the new Grand Jurors, to meet April 5th. J. S. Shoemaker, G. W. Cunningham, C. J. Brooks, Isaiah Ashcraft, J. F. Cokes, Wm. Merrill, B. G. Clow, J. H. Kinked, C. T. D. B. McKenzie Again in Reno.

D. Banks McKenzie is again in town. He will speak at the open meeting of the Good Templars to-morrow evening. On Wednesday evening he will lecture at the Reform Club hall. It is thought that he will remain here long enough to receive a benefit next Saturday night.

Fire at Pyramid.

John Hymers' woodpile, about twenty cords, burned up last Thursday. His house was saved with difficulty by a little son of Charles Knust and another boy that were visiting there. Mr. Hymers was away.

Walter S. Thomas is in town. John Bonner of Cresler & Bonner of Cedarville, is in town with his family. Mrs. Bonner and the little ones are going to the Sandwich Islands to remain two years in search of health.

We Can't Talk
Without showing the condition of our teeth. Every laugh exposes them. In order not to be ashamed of them let us use that standard dentifrice, SOZODONT, which is sure to keep them white and spotless. No tartar can encrust them, no canker affect the enamel, no species of decay infest the dental bone, if SOZODONT is regularly used. It is a botanical preparation, and its beneficial effect on the teeth and gums are marvelous, as it removes all discolorations, and renders the gums hard and rosy. D&W

The above offer is genuine, although at first sight you would consider it impossible. We will explain: Since we first established our business here, March 1st, 1878, we have paid particular attention to the buying of Bankrupt and Auction lots of Jewelry and Watches, and in no instance have we paid over one-sixth the manufacturers' price. Since starting we have always been able to dispose of these goods in Chicago and through our regular customers throughout the country at nearly regular prices, as fast as we could procure them, but owing to the large number of failures among the heaviest dealers and manufacturers throughout this and other countries during the months of June, July and August (the time when the jewelry business is stagnant), we have now on hand an immense stock of the most desirable goods we have ever handled, and which we have bought at lower prices than ever before. In order to dispose of this entire stock, we will sell at a special manner, and make room for new ones which we shall continue to buy, we have hit upon the following novel plan:

We propose to give you a list of the most desirable of these goods, giving opposite each article its regular retail value, and sell to you at the rate of Five Dollars' worth for $1. For instance, on receipt of $1, we will send you, POSTPAID, any article to the value of $5; or, on receipt of $1, articles to the value of $8, and so on throughout the entire list. Below we give a list of the most valuable of these goods:
